THE WORKPLACE

The Department of Pediatrics at Saint John Regional Hospital provides comprehensive tertiary and regional pediatric care for southern New Brunswick.

As one of Atlantic Canada's leading referral centres, the hospital serves a broad catchment area and provides access to advanced diagnostic and specialty services in a highly collaborative academic environment.

Services include:

- Inpatient pediatric medicine
- Newborn and tertiary neonatal intensive care
- Pediatric consultation services for Emergency and inpatient units
- Outpatient pediatric specialty clinics
- Developmental and community pediatrics opportunities
- Multidisciplinary pediatric care with allied health support
- Close collaboration with tertiary subspecialists and regional referral networks

The department works closely with family medicine, emergency medicine, obstetrics, mental health, rehabilitation, and subspecialty teams to provide family-centered pediatric care.

Physicians benefit from a collegial culture, excellent specialist support, and opportunities to help shape pediatric services across the province.

THE POSITION AND CLINICAL PRACTICE

Physicians at Saint John Regional Hospital enjoy a professional environment defined by a collegial culture and a commitment to family-centered pediatric care. You will work within a multidisciplinary framework, collaborating closely with family medicine, obstetrics, mental health, and rehabilitation teams to deliver comprehensive care to the region's youth.

The practice offers a balanced mix of inpatient, newborn, outpatient, and consultative pediatric medicine, allowing you to pursue specific areas of pediatric interest.

Practice Benefits:

- Flexible Entry: Take advantage of locum opportunities that may transition into permanent practice, allowing for a low-risk introduction to the department.
- Work-Life Balance: Benefit from flexible scheduling and shared call responsibilities within a collaborative department model.
- Wellness & Growth: Access a strong culture of mentorship and physician wellness within a high-functioning referral environment.
- Collaboration: Integrated support from allied health and regional referral networks.

Academic and Teaching Opportunities

Saint John Regional Hospital is a deeply integrated academic environment. Pediatricians will shape the future of the profession through affiliated medical education programs.

- Instruction: Engage in the teaching and supervision of medical students and residents.
- Leadership: Participate in quality improvement initiatives and program development to help evolve pediatric services across the province.
